

Black's Creek Range Rules

1. Eye and Ear Protection required on firing line
2. Spent brass casings must be picked up or swept up and placed in the brass containers or taken home. A brass catcher may be available for rifles with a picatinny rail.
3. Broken target frames are charged at $10.00 each.
4. Shooters using the Range must understand the safety rules or they may be asked to leave the Range. The Range Officer determines safety issues.
5. Eye and Ear protection are available for sale at the Range office for $5.00 for the combination.
6. Drinks and snacks are not available at the Range.
7. All military and retired military is $5.00 with proper ID.
8. Foul language is not tolerated.